TCACLA Spring Meeting Messiah United Methodist Church May 10, 2025 8:30-12:30

Our keynote speaker is Rev. Emily Meyer. An ordained pastor in the ELCA, she is currently serving as the Executive Director of The Ministry Lab. The Ministry Lab cultivates vibrant church leaders and congregations by curating resources for all areas of congregational life: CYF ministries, worship and preaching, contemplative practices, justice work, stewardship, mission/vision development, and small church/specialized ministries via its platforms and through one-on-one consultation. It is located on the campus of United Theological Seminary in St. Paul.

Among its many resources, The Ministry Lab offers its members a library that includes books, curricula, DVDs, and study guides. Dr. Meyer will introduce us to her organization and its resources, talk about how a library can be a change agent for its church, and discuss intergenerational resources with an emphasis on children and teens.

Dear friends:

Happy belated spring! I hope you all had a lovely winter season!

I would like to invite you and your friends to our spring event on Saturday, May 10th, which you can read about in another section of this newsletter.

On another aspect of our Twin Cities Area Church Library Association, we will be electing two new officers in the fall of 2025. The positions will be Vice President and Treasurer. If you would be interested, it is a great opportunity to be involved in the planning of spring and fall events. There might be opportunities to learn more about what is involved from our current officers. We will also be looking for a host church in the fall. It is held in October. All expenses are reimbursed to the church hosting the event.

Looking forward to seeing you at our spring event.

Janet Howard, President

WHAT CHURCHES ARE READING

Everyone is encouraged to contribute to this section. Please send book titles and authors to otseditor@gmail.com.

“A library is not a luxury but one of the necessities of life.”— Henry Ward Beecher

MIRACLES AND WONDER: The Historical Mystery of Jesus by Elaine Pagels, Doubleday, 2025.

Pagels' latest book reads like a historical mystery, with each chapter addressing a fascinating question and answering it based on the gospels Jesus's followers left behind. How did a poor young Jewish man inspire a religion that shaped the world? Why is Jesus said to have had a virgin birth? Why do we say he rose from the dead? Did his miracles really happen and what did they mean? Not just does Jesus come to life but his desperate, hunted followers do as well.

THE BOOK OF BELONGING; Bible Stories for Kind and Contemplative Kids by Mariko Clark, Convergent, 2024.

Designed for families seeking a Bible storybook that reflects the diversity of God's people and for everyone seeking a more expansive and wondrous view of God. The thoughtful text and rich illustrations present some of Scripture's most important and overlooked stories—including many female-centered ones—alongside old favorites reimagined to convey greater inclusivity, diversity, and historical representation. Readers will learn who God is and be reminded over and over that God tells each of us, “You are Beloved, you Belong, and you are Delightful.” Ages 7-9

GOD UNBOUND; Wisdom from Galatians for the Anxious Church by Elaine A. Heath, Upper Room Books, 2016.

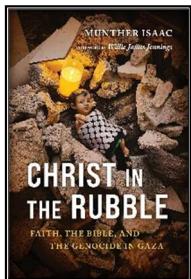

Christianity is currently undergoing a cultural shift just as challenging as the situation confronting Paul and the Galatians. As many churches decline, congregations and pastors feel uncertain and anxious about how to continue their mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ. Heath extends an invitation to broaden our view of God by moving beyond the walls of buildings and programs to become a more diverse church than we have ever imagined. While honoring tradition, she calls the church to boldly follow the Holy Spirit's leadership into the future and offers practical advice and hope for how the church can move through anxiety to courageous, culturally sensitive, and Spirit-led engagement in our rapidly changing world.

SACRED RHYTHMS; Arranging Our Lives for Spiritual Transformation by Ruth Haley Barton, IVP, 2006.

CHRIST IN THE RUBBLE; Faith, the Bible, and the Genocide in Gaza by Munther Isaac, Eerdmans, 2025.

IF THE BOUGH BREAKS....When Faith and Politics Bend a Family Tree to Its Breaking Point by Danielle Hensley, Cascade Books, 2024.

THE SERVICEBERRY; Abundance and Reciprocity in the Natural World by Robin Wall Kimmerer, Scribner, 2024.

Spiritual disciplines are activities that open us to God's transforming love and the changes that only God can bring about in our lives. Picking up on the monastic tradition of creating a "rule of life" that allows for regular space for the practice of the spiritual disciplines, Barton takes readers more deeply into understanding 7 key disciplines, along with practical ideas for weaving them into everyday life. Each chapter includes exercises to help begin the practices, individually and in a group context.

Writing from Bethlehem with close-up knowledge of conditions on the ground and rooted in a commitment to nonviolence and just peace, Isaac urges readers to consider that support for Zionism's genocidal project entails a failure to bring a properly Christian theological criticism to bear upon colonialism, racism, and empire. He calls on Christians to repent of their complicity in the destruction of the Palestinian people. And he challenges them to realign their beliefs and actions with Christ—who can be found not among perpetrators of violence, but with victims buried under the rubble of war.

Hensley examines the seemingly universal and growing chasm between the right and the left through the lens of a single family where ideological, political, and spiritual differences can be as subtle as they are pernicious. Her tale is also the love story of a daughter/sister/granddaughter/mother fighting passionately against external and internal forces that conspire to destroy love and to continue unhealthy cycles of abuse and denial in her family.

An Indigenous scientist asks, can we learn from Indigenous wisdom and the plant world to reimagine what we value most? Our economy is rooted in scarcity, competition, and the hoarding of resources, and we have surrendered our values to a system that actively harms what we love. Meanwhile, the serviceberry's relationship with the natural world is an embodiment of reciprocity, interconnectedness, and gratitude. The tree distributes its wealth—its abundance of sweet, juicy berries—to meet the needs of its natural community. And this distribution ensures its own survival.

TCACLA BOOK SWAP TABLE: You may want to bring an empty tote bag - or two - with you on May 10. Besides the usual array of duplicate or gently used books that attendees can bring to share with others, there will be a selection of books provided by Rev. Meyer. Reminder: If you bring books that aren't taken, please bring them home with you instead of leaving them for the host church to dispose of.

REVIEW BOOKS FOR LIBRARYTHING: If you are a member of LibraryThing, you have a chance to win up to 4 new and forthcoming books every month from select publishers and authors through its Early Reviewers program. By opting to receive books, you agree to read and review the books you win. However, you are not obligated to leave a positive review and you can express your opinion freely.

If you use the Dewey Decimal System in your library, did you know that an alternate arrangement was created in the Religion section in 2019? This was done in response to criticism that the existing system reflected a predominantly Christian centric perspective. The new system organizes religious subjects more equitably by chronology and geography. While many public and school libraries have made these changes, Christian church libraries may want to continue to use the original arrangement. Criticism of the racism and homophobia that's embedded in the system continues.
